You are invited to join the Institute for Study Abroad, Butler University for a thought-provoking National Advisors Council Conference. The conference will take place February 3-5, 2011 at the Indianapolis Marriott downtown.

IFSA-Butler Resident Directors Diana Arizaga (left) from Mérida, Mexico, and Laura Balbuena (right) from Lima, Peru will attend and present. Come hear their stories about students' experiences.

IFSA-Butler President, Dr. Mark Scheid, will open the conference on Thursday evening addressing IFSA-Butler's philosophy for the student experience in education abroad. Colleagues from around the U.S. and IFSA-Butler staff will present panel sessions on a wide range of student experiences.

Conference sessions include:

- Student Panel Research Presentations
- First Generation College Students
- Mexico Safety and University Policies
- Student Emergencies and Crises
- Roundtable Discussions on Current Topics

NAC members will be responsible for transportation to Indianapolis.

Suggested arrival and departure times are available on the online registration page.

IFSA-Butler will provide meals and accommodations in double rooms. A single room is available at an additional cost.

About Indianapolis

Indianapolis offers big city amenities in a convenient and inviting atmosphere. It's easy to do so much.

The nation's 12th largest city has gone through a dramatic revitalization and a stunning renaissance that makes it a different place than it was just a decade ago. Indy is the perfect balance of cosmopolitan style and small-town charm that makes it a successful destination for leisure travel, conventions and group tours, catering to nearly 22 million visitors a year.

Stay at the newly renovated Indianapolis Downtown Marriott Hotel, connected via skywalk to the Circle Centre Mall and just across the street from White River State Park, which houses the Eiteljorg and Indiana State Museums.
