Funding Education Abroad July 17 - 20, 2012

Join us for the inaugural Institute at the Institute—A small, intimate meeting for up-and-coming professionals that will explore, in-depth, a major issue in the field of education abroad. This year's topic is Funding Education Abroad. During the 4 days of the Institute, you'll hear presentations from experts, interact with leaders in the field, and collaborate to issue a final group White Paper.

Schedule

Tuesday, July 17 - Travel to Indianapolis, Welcome Dinner and Reception

Wednesday, July 18 - Sessions and Workshops

Thursday, July 19 - White paper discussion and Workshop

Friday, July 20 - Final Discussion and Departure

Please visit our website for a more detailed information:

To apply for a place at the Institute, please forward a letter of explanation tied to your interest in the theme of Funding Education Abroad, a curriculum vitae, and a letter of recommendation from a colleague in the field. All room and most meals in Indianapolis will be paid for by the Institute for Study Abroad. A limited number of travel grants will also be available to cover transportation. Apply by February 1, 2012 by emailing your materials to cpugh@ifsa-butler.org. A distinguished panel of leaders in the field will review applicants and issue acceptances by March 1, 2012.
