Length of study:

- Fall semester Spring semester

Student Course Preferences

Students will be required to take the mandatory Arabic Language course and the core program course. In addition, students must list electives they are interested in taking in order of preference. All students must complete and return this form. If you are required to obtain preapproval from your home university, consider having all the courses preapproved for your convenience. Students are not allowed to change their courses after their arrival in Egypt. The program courses and credits you take must equal a total of 15-16 U.S. semester credit hours. Note: All students must engage in independent study in order to earn 15-16 U.S. semester credit hours for the program. Students must write a narrative for each independent study and an independent study proposal to be returned with this form.
