Program Fee Bills

IFSA-Butler will send a single bill for the entire program fee, which includes tuition, services and housing. Our tuition fees are based on the arts and social science tuition charged by the host university.

Housing

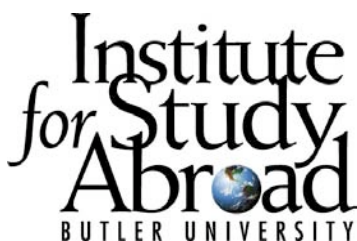

The housing component of our program fee includes housing while classes are in session and at least one meal per day. For more details on included meals, please contact your IFSA-Butler program advisor.

Supplemental Charges Notes

Charges listed below are approximate costs and may be subject to change. Any fees over these approximate costs will be billed to the responsible party as we receive them from the host university.

I. Universidad de Valparaíso Intermediate Program

Students enrolled in the program course "Easter Island (Rapa Nui): Traditions and Culture" have a required field trip to Easter Island. The cost of this trip will be approximately $1,100 and billed to the students' billing address as a tuition supplement.

These figures are designed to assist students with financial planning but are only estimates based on past students' experiences at the current exchange rate for each country. They do not include any entertainment or vacation travel costs.

The above numbers are general estimates of expenses during a program abroad. We recommend taking into account your current spending habits, the cost of living in your host country and the current exchange rate. Your IFSA-Butler program advisor can be helpful as you attempt to work on a personal budget for your experience abroad.

† Personal Miscellaneous estimates cover general expenses of college life, including course supplies, photocopying, toiletries, snacks, personal care, etc.

Commuting costs estimates are for transportation between housing and university. Transportation for personal or recreational purposes should be considered personal costs.

All costs are in U.S. dollars.
