**Students who wish to study psychology may take a maximum of two psychology modules.*

**Students who wish to study English are required to take two core lecture modules (100-200 level) and one seminar module (upper level). Registration for the seminar module will not commence until the student is at UCD. It is not possible to take more than three English modules per semester.*

I have read the enclosed information regarding studying at UCD and understand that I will be completing the majority of my courses within the School of Arts & Humanities.
